Permission to Publish and disclose information

Pulse Alive 2021

Information is to be held by the school – please do not return this form to Pulse Alive

Explanation of the activity

The NSW Department of Education is presenting Pulse Alive 2021 to be held at Ken Rosewall Arena, Sydney Olympic Park in September 2021. This event involves thousands of students in Kindergarten to Year 12 from public schools across NSW.

Description of the information that will be collected information collected may include your child's name, age, school and information collected by Pulse Alive such as photographs, sound and visual recordings of your child, your child's work and participation in Pulse Alive and expressions of opinion such as in interactive media. Pulse Alive may be recorded for publication purposes and to create professional learning materials for teachers. Various media outlets may also attend to collect footage of students.

Explanation of how the information will be collected

Students may be filmed and photographed while preparing and performing as part of the event and at workshops. Background footage of students may also be obtained and students may be interviewed in formal or informal settings with a teacher present.

Explanation of where the information will be published

Material obtained at the event may be published in print and in online publications of state, regional and local newspapers as well as on national television networks. It may also be shared on the NSW Department of Education channels such as www.education.nsw.gov.au and or www.artsunit.nsw.edu.au and their associated media channels.

In addition, information may be published on The Arts Unit Facebook channel and/or Department of Education Facebook/Twitter channels. These forms of social media are explicitly used for promoting excellence in NSW public schools. The channels are monitored by NSW Department of Education staff and will remain active for one year.

Parents should be aware that when information is published on public websites and social media channels, it can be discoverable online for a number of years, if not permanently. Search engines may also cache or retain copies of published information. Published information can also be linked to by third parties

For further enquires please contact pulse@det.nsw.edu.au

Permission to Publish

I give permission for my child to participate in Pulse Alive 2021 and to be interviewed, photographed and filmed by the Department of Education and any other approved media outlet for the publicity and coverage as described above.
